“ Randy, I will never forget when you went with me to help me move the last of my things from Chelsea to Pinedale. I would never have been able to get it done without your help. I remember when you would come home with us as a kid and spend a couple of days at our house. You, Gay and I had so much fun playing. So many more memories just keep rolling through my mind like a home video. You have gone on ahead, but I will never forget you. You will live in my memories. I love you so much.
