“ Hello Vickie and Mark.

I just learned yesterday of Agnes and Pete's passing while I was do further research into our Hayes and Robbins family history. I want you to know that I thought very highly of your parents. They were so wonderfully accepting of me as when I met them so many years ago and no one could have been as lucky as I was to have known both of them. They were cousins and the kindest of friends to me. I know that you miss them tremendously. I hope and pray that the loving memories of your lives spent with your dear parents will support and sustain you.
