“Brother Amos was an awesome person. He never wanted to be a burden to anyone but he didn't understand that he couldn't have if he tried. Several times people in the church would offer to come get him in bad weather but he wouldn't hear of it. He loved God and wasn't afraid to let anyone know. He was very outspoken about Gods Love and His principles . Every Sunday he would tell me to take care of Larry because I had a good one, then he would turn to Larry and tell him to take care of me because he had a good wife. He was always there with a hug and an I love you. He will certainly be missed but a little jealous because he is now rejoicing with Jesus and we're still stuck down here. We love you Amos!
