“ My sweet cousin, I don't know what to say about your passing. Our moms jokingly called us 'kissing cousins', even though we were not kissing, just a connection between us. My mom and your mom would carry us as babies for a walk, you with black curly hair and me with blond curly hair, I's bet we were so cute, I am only 18 days older than you. I remember when we got older and would visit and you would pick on me and I did not want to go to your house. Later as we got older you would come over and if I had a boyfriend over you would drive him home to get rid of him. I am so glad you kept in touch with me through the years and I am so sorry for the sad things that happened in your life. Love you Arlen!
