

Benjamin David Sloan

December 9, 1981 - October 27, 2013

Ben, age 31, passed away on October 27, 2013. He is survived by his son, Noah Vaughn; his father, Jim Sloan; brother Joel (Rosalyn) Sloan, two nieces, Corryne and Aubrey Sloan; his grandmother, Mrs. Betty Henderson of Alpharetta, Ga., many aunts, uncles, and cousins and his special companion, his dog Chloe. Ben was a 2000 graduate of Gardendale High School and earned certification as a Fitness and Exercise Instructor from Shelton State College in 2003. He was beginning a career in marketing and Ben was known to many friends for his loving personality, uplifting smile and long curly hair. He never met a stranger, unselfishly helped many, and was an encouragement to all he called friend. Ben was active for many years in the youth ministry of Gardendale First Baptist Church. He motivated many young people to participate in the Generations ministry and worked with youth from Union Hill Church on several retreats. Ben loved soccer and played on GHS first soccer team.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, November 2nd at 2 p.m. at The New Gardendale Funeral Home with visitation with family beginning at 12:30. Burial will be private. You can remember Ben by making a donation to Alabama Baptist Children's Home P.O.Box 361767, Birmingham, Al, 35236, or Missions Fund, GFBC, 940 Main St, Gardendale, Al 35071

Ben's family would like to expressed appreciation to the tremendous outpouring of love for Ben and support for the family on social media, visits and phone calls.

Tribute Wall

BR

“ My brother, my bestfriend, you will de deeply missed, this has been a very rough week, still in shock but I must be strong for Noah! Love U man!

Bryant Richardson - November 02, 2013 at 11:53 AM

“ Written in the Stars was purchased for the family of Benjamin David Sloan.

November 01, 2013 at 04:20 PM