

Betty Parker

May 1, 1934 - December 13, 2020

Betty Parker , 86, peacefully left this life for her heavenly homecoming December 13, 2020. She was from Graysville, Al. and had lived in West Jefferson and Gardendale. She married Lawrence Edward Parker May 29, 1954. She was happily married for 53 yrs to "Ed", who called her 'the most beautiful woman in the world". She was a loving and caring Wife, Mother, and Grandmother. She was very friendly to all and never met a stranger and was always willing to help anyone in need. Her smile, kindness, and generous heart will truly be missed. Mrs. Parker was preceded in death by her husband Edward Parker, grandson Alexander Lee, her parents Robert and Ethel Brewer, brother Lloyd Brewer and her brother-in-law Doug Parker. She is survived by her daughter Mona Parker and her husband David Other Lee and her sister-in-law Gloria Parker and also many nieces and nephews. Many thanks to her hospice team members for their loving care. The family will have a private graveside service at Moncrief cemetery on December 18, 2020 and will be officiated by Damien Littlejohn.
