“ Blake played Baseball with my son in the Gardendale Youth League. He spent the night a few times. He was a lovely boy who always had a smile on his face, even when he and James got in trouble for jumping on the bed and being rowdy. I saw Blake recently at his family's business and he ran up and hugged my neck. That is the way I will remember this ray of sunshine that touched our lives. We pray that the Bradberry family will find peace in knowing you have a special Angel to now watch over each of you. The Brittian Family.
