

Bobby Leon Snow

February 3, 1936 - June 14, 2025

Bobby Leon Snow, age 89, of Gardendale, AL, passed away on Saturday, June 14. He was a soft spoken and caring man who devoted his life to providing for and caring for his family. He was born February 3, 1936 in Guntersville, AL on the family farm. As a child, the family moved around for his father's work and he attended more than 20 schools by the time he graduated from Albertville High School. Bobby was a 1960 graduate of the University of Alabama where he met Deliah, his wife of 50 years. It was appropriate that their first date was an Alabama football game as he was a big fan throughout his life. Bobby was a faithful member of Gardendale First Baptist church where he served and found his second family. After retirement as an accountant, he was able to travel some before devoting his time to caring for his parents and wife until their passing. Bobby spent his final years determined to live independently and to not be a burden. He spent his final year and half at the caring community of Brookdale in Homewood.

Survivors include his two sons, Bruce (Anna) Snow of Jackson, AL, Chris (Amy) Snow of Homewood, AL; and grandchildren, Jonah, Maggie, Emily, Kaelyn, and Kalli Snow of Jackson, AL and Micah and Brenna Snow of Homewood. The oldest of 3 boys, sibling survivors include Dr. Jerry (Nancy) Snow of Washington, DC and Don (Lilli Ann) Snow of Thomaston, Ga. Dad never made much noise or needed attention, but he left a lasting impression.

We thank God upon every remembrance of you.
