“ There is a saying that some people come into your life for a season, while others come for a lifetime. This couldn't be truer for Granny. When I met her it was love, respect at first sight. She was kind, sweet, and special. Her words rang true, filling my heart with love. She accepted me. And I accepted her. She saw into my heart, my truth. She was connected to her LORD, serving as a mirror to HIS steadfast love and faithfulness. I learned through her witness. She was and will forever be dear to my mother and me. Thankful to have occupied time and space with her. We will never forget Granny!
