

Brian Taylor Mosley

June 28, 1992 - September 14, 2023

Brian Taylor Mosley, age 31 of Morris, passed away September 14, 2023 and went to be home with his Jehovah Rapha, Redeemer and Savior. Taylor is survived by his grandparents, Dan & Sharon Mosley; mother, Sherri Mosley; daughter, Marley Mosley; sister Caitlin Walker (Josh); aunt, Sarah Mosley Hatcher (Steve); great aunts, Doris Neely and Gail Kennedy; great uncles, Danny Neely (Diann) and Ronnie Neely (Rochelle) and cousins, Caleb and Ashlyn Hatcher as well as a host of extended family and friends. Taylor was a loving father. He enjoyed spending time and goofing around with his daughter and sister. He shared a special relationship with his grandmother and enjoyed playing pranks on her. He was also very close to his Mom and Paw-Paw and he enjoyed spending time with them. Taylor never met a stranger. He lit up the room with his wit, looks and humor. He was sweet and kind to everyone he knew and met. Taylor attended Gardendale Baptist Church. He was a talented athlete. He played football, basketball and baseball when he attended Hayden High School. Taylor also played park ball and travel ball since the age of five. He played both the banjo and guitar. He had a wonderful sense of humor and a great work ethic. Taylor was employed as a service technician at Dewey Barber Chevrolet and also worked part-time at Majestic Pies. He also loved his two dogs, Maverick and Minnie. Services to honor his life will be held at Gardendale Heritage Funeral Home. Visitation is from 6-8pm Tuesday, September 19, 2023. Funeral service is Wednesday, September 20, 2023 beginning at 2pm with burial following in Liberty-Minter Cemetery. Bro. Greg Lindsey and Bro. Randy Mahaffey will officiate.
