“ My favorite memory with my dad was the day he took me and my sister out for the entire day. He said the day was a surprise and wouldn't tell us where we were going. We finally arrived at a magic store in downtown Birmingham. He looked at us with a huge smile on his face and said whatever you want is yours. We had more fun watching the store clerk demonstrating all the magic tricks and their secrets I think. But I remember choosing the disappearing ball trick. That day is still so vivid as if it were yesterday. Thank you dad for that very special day. I love you, Christy ✨
