“ Darron it has been over 2 yrs and we still can't believe you are gone....I cherish all our years together the good times...bad and all...I will always love you and no one can take that from me..I never really found out what happened that day at Ralphs...God knows and the way things were done as far as me not being mentioned....they can act or say what they want..

You told me I was your true love and someday when we could we would marry what you and I had planned together...I did what you told me to do as far as the girls ....football is almost here and I know you are proud of our team...Roll Tide Roll baby and I have always loved you and will ...see you again...Randy really misses you to talk to and Crimson looks for her daddy..I have just left everything to God now...since you are not here anymore it is time to move soon but I will continue to come see you and put flowers on your grave my love...Forever You Love Sonya❤️
