“ Terri....I'm sure you know you have our deepest sympathy on David's passing. In these last few years, your family has been through more than any family should have been, and we pray to God that he continues to give you the strength that has brought you this far. When I think of David, I think of a gentle man.....soft spoken, agreeable and and with a great smile. We have been blessed that Eric is such a great husband and father and im sure David was proud of that too.
