“ It was almost fifteen years ago that Deb asked me to join with her in prayer for her dad’s eyesight. We rejoiced when his eyesight improved! She talked so favorably of him always and was so proud of his nursery he managed in his later years. Throughout his life, I witnessed her deep love and devotion to her dad as she visited him and cared for him. I was touched and blessed by the tenderness of her heart. It was this same heart that she shared with her grandchildren, whom she was so very proud of! I am honored that I had the opportunity to be the teacher to 3 of her beautiful/handsome grandchildren and continue to be part of her family’s lives and hearts. My love to each of you.
