

Diosadada Jones

October 24, 1956 - April 7, 2017

Diosadada “Aida” Jones of Fultondale, born October 24, 1956, went to be with her son Chris and her mother and father in Heaven on April 7, 2017. She was surrounded by her husband and children as she passed into paradise. She came to the US from the Phillipines in 1982 to be with her husband Eddie Jones. She lived, loved and laughed for the next 35 years alongside her husband and her children. She attended St. Patrick’s Church for many years along with Saint Elizabeth’s Church from time to time. She raised three wonderful children Chris, Jon and Anna. She had and loved her three awesome grandchildren Riley, Cale, and Maddie. She was so proud of all of them and loved being with them. She carried many sicknesses she had with grace and dignity, always striving to maintain her home life with her husband, rarely complaining and never lost her faith. She prayed the Rosary every time she could, always thanking God for her blessings. She was a dynamo of energy, stubborn about things she believed and her love for her family never, ever waivered. She was preceded in death by her father, Ceriaco Tumamak; mother, Macaria Tumamak and her son, Christopher Jones. She is survived by her husband of 35 years, Eddie Jones; son, Jonathan Jones; daughter, Anna Jones with future son in-law Zachary Zeschin and brother in-law Bo Harbin. She is also survived by her little dogs that she doted on like humans, Lexi, Larry & Lila, in addition to hundreds of relatives in the Phillipines. Visitation will be Monday, April 10, 2017 from 11 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at The New Gardendale Funeral Home. A graveside service will be at West Jefferson

Cemetery, Quinton, AL at 1:00 p.m.
