“ Oh my goodness! Where do you start with a memory for such a big teddy bear? Donald could be loud, talk way to much and sometimes just downright annoying. However, he had a great big loving heart. He visited Deb and Ed in California one year when Tom and I came through on our way back to Texas. Tom's knee replacment area became infected and he was becoming septic. We had to stay in the downstairs bedroom. Although Donald 's knees were not in the best shape, he was "forced" to stay upstairs, only complaining a little bit. As the days pressed on, he could see the bad shape Tom was in and stepped in to help care for him and just talk with him. Since that time, Tom and I have had a great fondness for him. He has made us laugh and our memories of him will bring a smile on our face. Please accept our deepest condolences.
