“ Don Piatt

Don and I became lifelong friends in 2005 when I bought a house he listed. While signing the contract, we learned we had both lost a son, and I was born the same year as his son.

That created a bond, plus all the details of buying and selling a house. Don always went above and beyond to help anyone that needed his help. He was there after the sale to help. I've never met anyone that respected others as much as Don.

For the past several weeks, I worked with him painting a rental house. I realized that Don didn't just know people's names, he knew hearts, he knew their story, and he cared deeply. The list of people he knew and cared about was long. He made people feel special and favored because he truly considered them a blessing in his life. He was genuine. His heart was that big. God blessed me with the opportunity during this time to know the depth of Don's story, to see that Sergeant Major Don Piatt, a tremendous blessing to so many, chose to live life as a Christian everyday, and now a prime example of a life well lived. I love him dearly.

He was most thankful and devoted to Carolyn. It was heartwarming when he talked about their life together. Don is a big miss. My deepest sympathy and heart felt prayers for Carolyn and the family.

“ Our family is sending prayers to Don’s family. Don was such a special man to us. He helped us find our first house 🏠 in 1995 when we moved to Fultondale then helped us sell that one and buy our current one in Gardendale. Such a wonderful man am we will miss him so much. RIP Fred, as he told our daughter to call him 😊

“ Mr. Don came into my families life many many years ago. He held my oldest daughter from the time she was an infant until he just couldn't any longer. He always had a smile on his face and gave the best warm hugs. We met him through my Dad (Gary Cherry) at Cherokee Surveyors. He would often times just come in and talk with my Dad for hours. They became the best of friends. He prayed over my Mother alongside my Dad many times before she passed of cancer and then was a big comfort when my Dad passed away. He was such a blessing and so precious. I'm sure he is laughing with my Dad and Harry Crane now!! Prayers to the family for peace and comfort.
