“ I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Mr. Maddox personally, but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear to you. I lost my father, and then my younger brother. We found much comfort in reading the bible as I'm sure you have also. I just wanted to share with you a few of my favorites. Psalm 34:18 reassures us that we are never alone, more so at a time like this. John 11:11,14-44 shares with us a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. Jesus resurrected him here on earth, before the very eyes of everyone gathered there. We can only imagine the tears of joy when everyone heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" and he walked from his memorial tomb. We too will have such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Oh! how I look forward to that day. Cherish the fond memories you shared, and keep them close to your hearts, remember what you learned by being a part of his life and pass it on to others and his memory and his legacy will live on in you and others as well. Take care of yourselves, so you can be there for those who love and need you now. Please, share my sympathy to those who knew Mr. Eldredge Maddox
