“ She was the best grandmother I could have ever asked for...she was funny and smart and always just wanted me to be happy in life...just last week I sat down on the bed with her told her I loved her and she stretched her arms out as wide as she could get them and said "I love you this much!" I feel like I didn't have enough time with her. But we will make up for it one day.

“ Elizabeth is my sister-in-law. I have known her since she came into this family when she married my brother. They have been married right at 50 years. Liz and I had a good relationship. Just recently she told me she could always talk to me about anything. I will miss our conversations. So long Liz, until we meet again.
