“ I want to share how as a divorce mother of three children, when Cassie and my daughter Amy were in school they were best friends ..Ann would take her along with her and Cassie on vacations, they had sleepovers, it was wonderful and we love her very much.. as I got older and my disability cost me to have to stop working, she always made sure that we had anything that she could help us with.. She would send food, clothes furniture anything she thought I needed now that I was raising my great grandchild.. a remarkable person, indescribable really.. Cassie, Devyn, .. her mother, all her grandchildren and great grandchildren, her whole family will be in my prayers.. She will be missed and she was very loved by many people.. ❤️
