“ Ann was an amazing woman, sweet and full of life. A wonderful loving wife and truly my best friend. Will never truly understand why God needed her so soon. I was so looking forward to growing old with her. There will be many dark days and even darker nights ahead. I know she looking down from heaven watching over me know and just want to make her proud. Sweetheart I have always loved you and will to I die. I am Not going to say goodbye just see you later.

Love you
