“ Sorry to hear this. I have great memories of Emmett, Irene and all you guys. Lived in walking distance of your house and was always welcomed. I loved looking at the pictures and remembering him so well. May God comfort your hearts. He's my hero. I hope I live that long.

“ Uncle emmett was my Dad's (Austin)brother. They were best buds. I remember, when I was about 12, going to Gardendale with them to install a storefront glass in a pharmacy. I'm sure I was not much help, but Uncle Emmett made me feel I was an important member if the “crew”. He was always an encouraging person. He made you feel good about yourself!

His ability to cut a large piece of glass always amazed me when I was a kid!!!

As a craftsman, his mantra was

“Clean hands

Clean tools

Clean work”

His tool box was always organized and his tools neat and clean.

A wonderful man!

I love you, Uncle Emmett!
