“ I am so very sorry for you loss. I did not know Faith personally, but I do know how hard it is to lose a loved one. My deepest sympathy goes out to you. I hope you can be comforted knowing others care. God is near to those broken at heart, and he will give you the strength to keep going. May the promises he holds out get you through this difficult time. (John 5:28,29)

“ Wayland & Family... Hello young man! I know we haven't been in contact over the years and that is regretable; but I wanted you to know that I'm saddened by your loss of your wife and partner and I send my warmest condolences to you and the children. I'm told that she was a beautiful young lady and I'm sorry an illness had to shorten her life with you and the kids! Its sometimes hard to believe from when you stand today, but time DOES HEAL a broken heart! My best wishes to you and yours. BTW, Your Dad tells me you're an excellent misician; and how could you NOT BE, with the parents you have!

“ Life is short and sometimes God needs to take an angel home before we feel as though their life is complete on earth. We don't always know why he calls an angel home. Lanie and Kale can know they have a special angel now, watching over them. Life is such a precious thing. It is a gift we are given to appreciate and hold dear. I am so glad that we all found a way back to one another after a few missing years. As kids we had so much fun at Granddaddy Davidson's house and down in the country and as adults I treasure you all more than you could ever know. I love you guys so very much. You all mean the world to me. You know she will be laughing at us all teary and messing up our make up and hair ... she will have a ball making fun of us all... God gave us all a precious gift if for just a little while. He gave us a wonderful Mom, wife, daughter, sister cousin and friend. Our lives are better for us all and family is to be treasured and we should never let a day pass without saying I love you. I do love you guys. If I can do anything please let me know

“ Hidee I know that you and your family are crying and hurting down here, but just think when we get over there thee will be none of that just happiness and joy. Although I never knew your sister, if she was anything like you she was a great person and dear friend. I just want to tell you and your family to just look to God. He will truly see you through.

“ Faith is with Jesus. Without Jesus, there is no hope. We don't understand here on earth why our loved ones go away, but God has a definite plan for each of us. His plan for Faith was to call her home yesterday. we have hope in Him, therefore, we know we will be reunited, in HIS time. Keep believing, keep trusting, keep loving, keep hoping. Keep the Faith. She will live in your hearts the rest of your lives, but eternally with Jesus.
