“ I'm not sure if this message will ever meet the people it is intended for but since hearing of Gary's passing only a week ago I carry with me a great sadness. People come and go in our lives, some easily forgotten but even though half a century separated us I feel the bond of friendship still existed. We were high school friends, team mates, study buddies, and rarely missed a day of walking to school together. I viewed Gary as a true friend growing up and adored his family Janet, Herman, and Bonnie as I did my own. The Lord may have bigger plans for him but he will forever be held in our hearts. "Wicker" thank you for being my good friend.
