“ My heart is aching along with yours. Oh, the many wonderful memories I hold so close of us cousins growing up, playing and visiting together. We even picked cotton together (of course Gerald and Riley's was by choice). I never did understand why they thought it was fun. I love you all and am praying that God will give you peace as you deal with the great loss. Love, Shirley “ Brother Hogan was such a wonderful influence on James and I in our early marriage and raising 3 little ones. He always spoke to our children, carried them around and always showed a genuine interest in them. He was a soft spoken man that was always at service and willing to help anyone. I appreciated his faithfulness and learned so much from him. it was an honour to know him.
