From His Grandchildren:

To us, he was more than a grandfather — he was a source of love, laughter, and wisdom. "Papa Joe" filled our lives with stories, humor, and quiet strength, teaching us by example the value of kindness, faith, and perseverance. His legacy lives on in the memories we cherish and the lessons he instilled in each of us. We will forever carry his spirit in our hearts and take comfort knowing he is reunited with those he loved most.

In lieu of flowers, his grandchildren ask that donations be made to The National Veterans Foundation or The Gideons International in honor of Joe Stahlkuppe. These two organizations were close to our Papa Joe's heart and reflect the values he lived by.

A graveside service with military honors will be held on Friday, November 14, 2025 at 12:30 p.m. at the Alabama National Cemetery.

“ So sorry to hear about Joe's passing. He was a great Father in Law to my daughter Christy and an all around nice person. Prayers for his family.

“ I first met Joe in 1975 when we were both working in the substance abuse division of the Alabama Mental Health Department. I immediately noticed three things about him: he was quirky, he had a great sense of humor, and he was a good guy. In all the fifty years that I knew him, that never changed.
