“Gussie Corine, Aunt Pat Pat, was a woman who could warm your heart by her big smile and her great hugs. She was a precious woman who will always have a place in my heart. She was in every area of my life and we all have memories of her, from running through Grandmama's house in Inglewood as a little girl and knowing she had awesome treasures in her room, to celebrating my high school graduation, dancing at my wedding, loving my children and rocking my grandchildren and sneaking cookies to the kids in the basement when they were told to wait until after supper. Her child-like innocence and love for everyone and everything reminds me that if we come to Jesus with a child-like faith he will receive us. Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. If we believe and confess our sins, He is just to forgive us of our sins. This child-like faith and innocence is the way Aunt Pat Pat lived every day. Though she is now with the angels and no doubt loving on Grandmama and Mama Edna, she will live in our memories and hearts. We will see her in the innocence of our children and grandchildren, in Jesse's smile, the way he has learned to live compassionately through taking care of his mama and in the twinkle in his eyes. I know I will remember her and hold her in my heart; I will tell my grandbabies about the precious woman who had a heart as big as the sky and through the life she walked I am reminded to approach Jesus and His truth without reservation. ~Kelly Oriani~

“ I can't say enough about the Love mama Pat had for everyone. She was always there with a hug, smile and helping hand wherever she went. I will never forget all that she did to help pull my wedding together. She was here the whole week prior helping with anything she could, with a smile and sweetest spirit. Although we live far away the visit with mama Pat were special, she made sure of that every time she saw you. We will always miss her but she will be in our hearts. I will pray that I can learn to be more like her and love life and people the way she did. Thank you mama Pat for the sweet lessons you have taught us.
