“ I had the privilege of being pastor to Henry for 20 years and no better man ever walked this earth than Henry Curtis. He was a servant to God, therefore, he became a servant to the church to do whatever needed to be done. Words will not remove the grief of the family in the loss of a loved one but the beauty is that....we know where he is. He expressed faith in Jesus Christ, lived for Him for years and now...gone to be with Him. We too will soon follow him and may our testimony be such that God will be glorified.

“ Henry was always cheerful and light-hearted. He popped more wise-cracks than anyone I knew and always had a tall tale to share. He was a joy to be around. Our families have spent many joyful days and nights together. In fact we lived with them for a few weeks when their sons and our son were very young, even before JULIE was born. Very close families. Love you Inez. God bless you and the family in the long days and nights ahead.
