“ Paul was a big part of my life for a long time. However, as I got older and he remarried we grew apart. He took he me in as one of his own. He was a great influence in my life and always made sure I was taken care of. I will always remember that. I am thankful that he came into my life when he did. I will be praying for peace and comfort for his children and family.

“ He once told me about the little cross he always had in his pocket. And in my darkest hour thoughts of Paul the story and that little cross helped me overcome one of the worst things a husband could ever face. I will be forever gratefull for knowing him and Christy. They helped save a life.

“ Paul was a great friend and fellow brother. We had some good times working together and building a strong bonded friendship. We shared many of laughs away from work. Paul was a hardworking man that loved his family and friends. Always wanted and did what was best for his family. Paul would give the shirt off his back if needed to help someone in need.

All I know is the family, especially the grandkids, have a new guardian angel that will watch over them like a hawk.

Heaven has gained another great soul. I am going to miss you my brother.
