“ Mr. Weaver was a fine man. He always greeted me with a smile and usually offered me something from his garden. He also thought something was wrong with me because I don't like tomatoes! Prayers for Mrs. Weaver, Kelly, Corey and family.

“ He was a great man . He always made you laugh. The times we fished and the cutting up we did. We will miss you Paw, but the memories will live on.

“ I have fond memories of Mr. Weaver and how he made me feel welcome when I, as a teenager, visited their home. He was a kind person and fine man. My prayers and condolences are with Mrs. Weaver, Kelley, Corey and their family.

“ I will always remember my “Paw” teaching me how to drive using the mule on the backroads at the river. I will remember how gentle he was brushing my hair before bed. I will remember him singing to me “A Bushel And A Peck”. I will remember him teaching me how to play checkers. I will always remember how he made me feel loved.
