“ Jim and I grew up together on Rosemary Road in the 1940s, and fun it was! I knew his family well, and they were, and are, all Fine people. Jim and I grew up in Shady Grove Methodist Church and later joined Mt. Olive First Baptist Church at different times and for different reasons. There we stayed friends for many years. He will be missed. Dot, Martha's and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time.

“ I was lucky enough to live and grow up on Rose Mary road. Seems like a thousand years ago. It was older gentlemen and ladies who had a special love for one another.. made a lasting impression on most who lived there..

Jim's daddy ,the original Mr. Wilson was a kind fellow who didn't mind us kids being around. He and my granddad, Mr. Scutt were friends from the rail road days. The first time I ever saw welding was when Jim came over one evening and welded the legs back on a chair. Don't remember who's but I was mesmerized by that. If I saw Jim anywhere, he would always ask about my dad, who was about the same age, and my family. Fine man he was. Sorry for your loss Jim and Mike. He was one of the great ones.
