“ Jay Day is my nephew. I love this handsome sweet young man. Because I am his Aunt and way older than him, he will be forever young to me. He was thoughtful and sweet. I love coffee and our family does too—Jay always served us coffee. Jay loved cars and knew what to do when something went wrong. He worked on our cars — he was a great mechanic. Jay loved everybody and especially his little sister, Piper, and his Mother. We all will miss Jay and I know he is in heaven with his Lord and Savior. He is with his brother, Todd, and his father, Buddy and relatives whose home is heaven. One glad day we will be reunited with Jay and all our loved ones who God called to their heavenly home. God’s Word is true and He has promised this. Love you Jay. See you in heaven. Aunt Bonnie (Peachie).

Martha, Derp, sincere, heartfelt sympathy to you and all your family in the loss of your dear son “Jay”. Today like is changed - - - sharing your storm, your heartache, your loss, your sorrow, your grief, your tears in the loss of your dear son “Jay”. My daughter Tracy went to school with he and Todd at Tarrant. She really liked them. Isn’t it a great comfort to know where Jay is, and how happy he must be!! Todd and Buddy too . Deepest Sympathy, Sharon Rogers Tarrant, Ala 🙏🌹 I Thess. 4:13-14
