I grew up and went to a school with Jessica from elementary school through high school. I remember her artistic talent from early on and she always won the handwriting contests in school with her beautiful cursive. We were also volleyball teammates. I always admired her ability to be bold and tough yet at the same time kind, gentle and thoughtful. She was so fun to be around and always kept us all laughing. I'm so very sorry to hear this news and so sorry for your loss. Love and prayers to all of her family and friends.
