

Jewell Guthrie

February 19, 1915 - January 29, 2011

January 29, 2011: At the age of 95, Jewell Parsons Guthrie departed this life to be happily reunited with Talmadge, her beloved husband of 68 years. After moving to Gardendale in 1945, she and Talmadge became lifelong active members of the community and in Gardendale First Baptist Church. Jewell spent her time here on Earth caring for her patients as a recovery room nurse and caring for her family as a mentor and an example. On February 1, at the Gardendale Funeral Home, a life well-lived was celebrated by those who loved her, with hymns and prayers. Afterwards she was laid to rest next to Talmadge, in the Garden of the Old Rugged Cross in Oakwood Memorial Gardens. The family would like to thank Reverend Donald Mauldin for officiating at the service. She is survived by her son, John T. Guthrie, Jr., and his wife Virginia; four grandchildren, Rowan Hudson, John T. Guthrie, III, Virginia Piper and Benjamin Guthrie, as well as seven great-grandchildren; Jesse Graham, Sarah Graham, Andrew Guthrie, Joey Guthrie, Emily Norris, Linus Piper, and Jacob Gunter. Jewell will be lovingly remembered by many more.

A visitation will take place on Tuesday from 1-3PM at Gardendale Funeral Home. Service will begin at 3PM at Gardendale Funeral Home 2214 Decatur Hwy with burial to follow at Oakwood Memorial Gardens.
