“ Jimmie was the a special Lady!
She Loved her Family,Going in the RV and Alabama Football.
Everywhere she went she always had a smile on her face.
I would see her at a yard sale she would tell me that was too much for that Alabama purse to come by the house she had several.very thoughtful of her.
The last time I saw her she told me how good she was feeling.
And I thought she really looked good.
The Lord must of needed another Angel, so he came and called Jimmie home.
I am praying for her Family, She will be in Heaven watching over all of you.
till you one day meet again.
God Bless and Comfort You

“ We met Jimmie and Jim at Styx River Resort Camping.. She was such a sweetheart with her dogs and riding her bike with them in the basket. We were newbies to camping and she gave us tips and some of her ideas. We hit it off really well, I was proud to call her my friend, she will be missed. Our prayers and love to Jim, and her beautiful family of which she was so proud.
