Had a dream about you. The next day when I woke up ,my mother was on the phone with your aunt. I ask her for your phone number and she told me you had went home from the hospital that day. What a trip. Their are certain people that when you see them you immediately crack a smile and a laugh because you remember the crazy shit you did with them. They had the canary that ate the cat look. These people are special. This man was one . Athletic ability? You could sit down and invent a game and in a couple of hours JB would master it. I hated playing anything against him, especially Mortal Combat on Sega. Not only would he beat you ,he would always do a fatality move on you and humiliate you. Johnathon was all heart though. We never, ever had a cross word with one another. He was beautiful.

Jonathan was one of the good one's. Hoop, my nephew came by one day with Jonathan and he became family that day. He was always a nice young man and as I said loved my children and family as we loved him as family also. Too young, too early, and will be missed much! He knew Jesus as Savior and we will meet again in Heaven with friends and family. Prayers for family and friends at this time, Amen.
