“ I am a Meals on Wheels volunteer and only knew Mr. Hearn from the brief encounters that we shared a couple of times a month. He was always so cordial and thankful. sometimes my daughter also volunteers and admired his grandfather clock once when we were delivering at his house. I told him that my daughter has always wanted one and he offered to sell it to us. We bought it and are storing it away until Christmas. My daughter will love it and appreciate and I thank Mr. Hearn for giving us the opportunity to get it for her. I am so sorry for your loss. I will remember his wonderful disposition and will miss him as well.
