

Joyce Findley Pickle

January 19, 1944 - September 11, 2006

PICKLE, JOYCE FAE FINDLEY, our beloved Maw Maw, passed away in peace Sunday evening. She was 62. She graduated from Minor High School in 1962. She and her husband, Gene, established Pickle Septic Tank and Plumbing, Inc. She lived in Brookside- Mt. Olive and attended Bivens Methodist Church. But Maw Maw truly lived for her family, for her husband, her son James Patrick and his wife, Alisha of Corner; her daughter, Cynthia Scarbinsky and her husband, Kevin of Corner; and especially her grandbabies, Hannah, Alex, Blayse, Corbin, Kaiser and Kanon. She would stretch her arms wide and tell her grandchildren, "I love you thiiiiis much", and they knew what those words meant long before they could talk. Joyce had brothers and sisters and aunts and uncles and nieces and nephews and cousins and friends and pets too numerous to count, but every member of her extended family knew one thing in their heart. They could count on her. Her greatest talent was making everyone around her feel special. She was strong when her family and friends needed strength, wise when they needed wisdom and warm when they needed an embrace. She was and always will be, everyone's Maw Maw. Joyce was preceded in death her father, Dan Findley and her mother, Minnie Lou Taylor, lovingly known as Ma Kate. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, September 13, 2006 at 11:00 AM in the chapel at Morgan's @ Gardendale with burial at Bivens Chapel Cemetery. Visitation will be Tuesday, September 12 from 5:30-8:00 PM at the funeral home. Morgan's @ Gardendale directing.
