

Kathy Perdue Scott

January 31, 1953 - June 8, 2023

Kathy Perdue Scott was a devoted wife, mother, cousin, and friend. Having fought the good fight, the Lord called her home on June 8, 2023, at the age of 70.

She was born to Ivon and Mary Perdue on January 31, 1953. After graduating from West End High School, she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Kathy went on to have a very successful and rewarding forty three year career with The Baptist Health System, retiring as the Walker County Baptist Lab Director in January of 2018.

Kathy's greatest joy came from her family. She was married to her husband, Clarence for forty eight years and had two sons, Kevin and Christopher. Kathy took a lot of pride in being a wife and a mother, from making extravagant cakes for her boy's birthdays, Boy Scouts, or just being the kind hearted and gentle woman she was, Kathy's heart was always with her family. She also enjoyed shopping, traveling, antiquing, crocheting, going to the lake, and being a mom to her fur babies, Ashley and Hitchhicker.

Kathy is preceded in death by her parents, Ivon and Mary Perdue; Grandparents, Oscar and Malinda Anderson and Cottie and Dovie Perdue, as well as an Aunt, Uncle, cousins, and nephews.

The visitation service is scheduled for Tuesday, June 13, 2023 from 5-7pm.

The funeral service will be held

Wednesday, June 14, 2023 at 11am at Gardendale Heritage Funeral Home.
