“ I still remember this from years ago when Chris and Teresa were having a yard sale at their Winship Place house. Teresa had a basket full of smaller items and nick-nacks that were free to take. Lacy said "oh no you can't give those out for free. you have a put a small price on them b/c no one will take them if they are free but if you put a small price on them and they end up getting them for free, they will have felt like they got a good deal". And she was right, that basket was empty within an hour!

God saw she was getting tired
and the cure was not to be.
So He put his arms around her
and whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful hearts
we watched her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
we could not make her stay.
A golden heart stooped beating.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Lacy. The last time I got to see her was many years ago in Fairhope, Alabama. My sister Gail Holloway Deason and I had a good time sharing memories over coffee at the hotel on the beach. Lacy was so kind and had a smile you would always remember. She and I talked on the phone a few months back about a move My sister had to make that I was very concerned about. Lacy promised she would check on her and she didn't let me down. That's Lacy, caring for others! She will be missed by so many people but we know she is in Heaven rejoicing with Jesus and her loved ones who went before her. Gloria and Roy Majtyka

i met lacy many years ago at a eaves family reunion. we we were attracted to each other when met our husbands were cousins some how. but i looked forward to seeing her every year after that. she was so gracious southern lady with a accent to die for. she was beautiful and was very classy. she loved her saviour and lived her faith. kind, friendly, a great friend. she taught her daughter to be just like her. spent time with her in her home and her daughters homes. so lovely and fun. i will miss her just knowing she was there. tell her, scott, lyall, i hope will see each have a reunion in heaven. if anyone was more worthy to be there it was her. safe flight lacy.
