“ Andra, You know Maurice and I will miss Larry a lot and we will never forget him; anyone that knew him will always remember him. Maurice thought of him as a father and a friend; I likewise thought of him as a father-in-law and a friend. We loved Larry just as God does and will anticipate seeing him when it's our time to go be with the Lord. You were so blessed to have a man like Larry in your life for so many years; God showed you favor when he gave you Larry. There aren't many people that can say they had a love like you and Larry had; and definitely not for the number of years that the two of you were able to experience it together. Maurice and I really admire Larry as the man of God that he undoubtedly was, as the wonderful husband he was to you, and as the awesome friend he was to us. I know God was as eager to receive him to be in Heaven with him as we were to have him here on earth with us. You have to admit it; everyone loved and adored Larry. We love you too Andra and pray that the Lord will comfort you during your time of bereavement. Please don't forget how much Larry was loved and will be missed. Also, don't forget that we will see him again when God says we can because we are heirs to the throne too. Love Ya Andra

“ Larry your body has perished but your spirit lives on for ever. I so enjoyed the times we got to visit and i will treasure them always. You were my first cousin but you was also my friend. When we were children Larry was older than us and didn't play with us very much, but we still managed to get into trouble A LOT when you all came to Tennessee. Those was GREAT times. See you in Heaven cuz...
