“ It is May 2021 and I only now learned of Linda's passing. The loss saddens me greatly because she meant so much to me as a realtor extraordinaire during a rough time I was going through when she helped me find my home. She was an outstanding real estate agent who was considerate and attuned to my situation and specific needs. And she was a warm, kind, caring person who was a good listener. Her faith and compassion made her a special lady. Anytime I was around her I felt like I was with a friend. She also had a fun sense of humor. After I moved into my home she invited me to an Elk's meeting. We share the same first name but not the same frame so as she stood next to me---a shorter skinny Linda--she introduced me to several people as her Mini-Me. That cracked those people up. Linda was a special person and a delight to know. I regret not staying in touch with her and I wish I could have told her what a blessing she was to me. My heartfelt condolences to her family who must have such sweet memories of her. God rest her soul in eternal peace.
