

Linda Sorrell Jackson

December 12, 1946 - May 11, 2017

Surrounded by love and family, beloved Linda Sorrell Jackson, age 70, of Mt. Olive, Alabama, passed away May 11, 2017. Linda, also known as Nanny and Ms. Sugar to her grandchildren, is survived by her loving husband Johnny Jackson of Mt. Olive, her children, Dusten Walker, Wendy Walker, Kimberly Jackson all of Birmingham, AL and Martin Jackson of Houston, TX. She leaves behind six grandchildren, one great grandchild, numerous nieces and nephews. She also leaves behind two sisters Debbie Tompkins of Shelby County, Jenny Hawkins of Oneonta, Al. and step mother Hazel Sorrell of Oneonta.

Born Dec 12, 1946, Linda, a native to Birmingham, attended Ramsay High School and later worked for the Birmingham Board of Education. Linda had a great love of family as described in her own words, "I love my children, grandchildren and husband so much it hurts." Linda enjoyed her visits from her children, grandchildren, and family. She and her husband enjoyed visits to New Orleans, local culture and visiting the Gulf Coast beaches. She was an avid Alabama football fan.

Linda Sorrell Jackson wishes to spend eternity in one of her favorite locations, the beach.