“ I had the wonderful privilege to work with Mrs. Loris Jones mother Agnes many years ago before her passing and knew her to be a wonderful lady. Knowing Mrs. Agnes, it was easy to understand the sweetness of Loris. Being a pianist, it was always a joy to listen to Mr. Johnny Jones play the piano. He and my parents graduated from High School together. We had the pleasure to care for Mrs. Agnes at THE JACOBS HOUSE so we were so very complimented when we were called to care for Mrs. Loris. We are saddened by the fact that we were unable to care for Mrs. Loris any longer but understand divine intervention. While I personally do not know the children of Mr and Mrs. Jones, all the above connections give me an understanding of how they came to be so very polite and gracious. To loose both parents so very close must be difficult. Our thoughts and hopes are with you all. - David L. Thomas - THE JACOBS HOUSE
