“ I was named for Aunt Louise, my mom's little sister. I always admired and loved her when I was a child, but as I grew up I learned so much more about the characteristics she displayed that inspired me. She was truly devoted to God and her family. She possessed a sweet spirit that made everyone want to be around her. She had a ready smile, a hug, and a sense of humor. She freely shared family stories that I loved hearing. Her Christmas letters to all her nieces and nephews are treasured family history. I loved her always and I know her arrival in heaven was met with, "Well done, good and faithful servant...Enter into the joy of your Lord."

“ He Louise and my daddy , Glenn Pennington, were first cousins. My daddy was 18 months old when his parents died and Louise's parents raised him. Louise told me she thought daddy was her brother until someone told her they were cousins. Louise said she cried when she learned daddy was not her brother. I have always had a special place in my heart for Louise. Beverly Pennington Johnson Houston, Texas
