

Margarett Wiginton Johnson

April 23, 1939 - May 18, 2024

Margarett Wiginton Johnson, age 85, of Hoover, AL passed away peacefully on Saturday, May 18, 2024 surrounded by family. Margarett was born on April 23, 1939 in Tupelo, MS to the late James Troy and Mattie Lillian Reed Wiginton. She was the oldest girl of seven children. She adored her brothers and sisters; the late James Thomas Wiginton; Marcus Eugene Wiginton (Barbara); Donald Finis Wiginton (Nancy); the late Martha Janice Gulick (Dick); Ann Wiginton Phillips (Wendell); and the late Helen Virginia Holcomb (Ken). Margarett was the beloved wife to the late Howard Shirley Johnson and precious mother to Matina Elaine Johnson (Keith Champion) of Hoover, AL and Katrina Johnson Elliott (David) of Marietta, GA. She was a cherished grandmother to Ella Kate, John and Charlotte "Char Char" Elliott of Marietta, GA and a host of 4-legged grands as well. She devoted her life to her daughters and family and would do anything under the sun for her grandchildren. Margarett was a commercial brokerage insurance underwriter and gifted seamstress. Above all, Margarett was the epitome of love, elegance and grace. She was a devoted Christian and long-time member of both Mt. Olive and Vestavia Church of Christ. A visitation and memorial service will be held at Gardendale Heritage Funeral Home on Wednesday, May 22, 2024 with the visitation at 10 a.m. and memorial service at 11 a.m.
