

Margie Lou Shipp

December 8, 1942 - December 27, 2019

Margie Lou Jacobs Shipp was born on December 8, 1942. She went home to be with the Lord on December 27, 2019 at the age of 77 years.

Margie was born and raised in Warrior, Alabama and graduated from Warrior High School.

In 1975, she moved to the Atlanta area to marry her high school sweetheart, Charles Shipp. They shared 44 years of marriage and continued to live in the Atlanta area where they raised their family.

After retiring in 2000 they moved back "home" to Alabama where they were active members of their church and square dance club. Margie's greatest joys were traveling, spending time with family and listening to music, especially her granddaughters play the piano.

In 2015, Charles and Margie moved to Mansfield, TX to be closer to family and became faithful members of Countryside Baptist Church.

Margie is survived by her loving husband Charles; her daughter, Danita Carr; and step-daughter, Cynthia Shipp; as well as five grandchildren and their spouses; and six great-grandchildren.

Margie will be laid to rest at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Cemetery, Warrior, Alabama at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, January 11, 2020. Donations to the Cemetery fund are requested in lieu of flowers.
