“ I spent most of time at the Coalson home growing up as Michelle's best friend. Sue was like a mom to me. She worked hard, played hard and loved with all her heart! My deepest sympathies go out to Michelle, Michael, Steve and the entire family.

“ Sue was the most considerate and nicest person that I have ever had the privilage of knowing. She loved life and enjoyed being around her family. She would gladly help anyone in need and was always, always a friend first. She will be missed by all of her family, all of her friends and people with whom she had day to day contact with. God Bless her family and comfort them in their time in need.
