“ I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Maudie personally, but I do understand the pain of losing one so dear. I lost my father and then my younger brother. We as a family found much comfort in reading the bible, as I'm sure you have also. I just wanted to share with you a few of my favorites for you to read,when you have time. Psalm 34:18 reassures us that we are never alone,more so at a time like this and in John 11:11,14-44 we read of a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. Jesus resurrects him here on earth before the very eyes of all who had gathered there. We can only imagine the tears of joy when they all heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, "Lazarus,come forth!" and he walked toward them from his memorial tomb. We too will experience such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Cherish the fond memories you shared and keep them close to your hearts and her memory will live on in you and remember all you learned from her by being a part of her life and pass it on to others and her legacy will live on in you as well as those you share it with. Take care of yourselves so you can be there for those who love and need you now. My condolences go out to all who knew Maudie Butler
