

Mavis Brown Hayes

June 4, 1921 - March 30, 2020

Mavis Brown Hayes went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Monday, March 30, 2020 just 2 months shy of her 99th birthday following a long journey through Alzheimer's Disease. She is survived by three daughters, Sally Hayes, Sherry Hayes Buell, and Glynda Hayes Abraham (Reiner); five grandchildren, Brian Hayes, Angela Thomas, Jeff Senft (Brandy), Shannon Buell, and Amy Lazaro (Sergio); eight great grandchildren, Dylan Taylor (Haley), Kayla Hayes, Kristen Hayes, Wade Thomas (Kelsey), Ryan Thomas, Joshua Thomas (Erin), David Senft (Megan), and Jade May (Christian); two great grandsons, Trace Taylor and Aiden Thomas; five great great granddaughters, Kayzli Thomas, Emory Thomas, Korbynn Thomas, Sarah Elizabeth May, and expected in May, Stella Taylor; and a host of other extended family and friends. Mrs. Hayes is preceded in death by her husband of 53 years, Rev. Roy M. Hayes; one great grandson, Blake Thomas; her parents Lonnie B. and Sallie Brown; one sister and four brothers. She lived her life to love and serve other people. While we will miss her, we know seeing Jesus was her ultimate goal and she is now finally home. After a private family graveside, Mrs. Hayes will be buried beside her husband at Ragan Chapel Cemetery in Ohatchee, AL.

“ She was my Preacher's wife, about 60 years ago, I was very young and she was a very nice lady, and Preacher Hayes was good to me, and they had three pretty girls, Sally, Sherry, and Glenda. We lived next door to them and I really hated it when they left to preach at another church. ”

“ Mommaw was always teaching us about Jesus and his love....she served him all of her life until she wasn't physically able, and even through the confusion of Alzheimer's she still would convey her love of Jesus. I am so blessed to have been given the time I had with her on earth and can't wait to reunite with her in heaven. ”
